Mrs. Jane Jackman, who died yesterday norning at the home of her son, former Election Commissioner Thad. C. Harris, No. 2925 Washington boulevard, will be buried at her old home in Rocheport, Boone County, Mo. The body was shipped to that point last night. Mrs. Jackman's death was caused by la grippe, which resulted from a severe attack District, who made the arrest, testified that Richard had been overzealous in his supplications for alms, and he found it necessary to remove him from the streets. Among those he stopped were Chief Desmond and Detective Frese, who had a hard time disengaging themselves from him.

KERENS OWES AN EXPLANATION

Friends of Webster Davis Criticisc Him for Supposed Connection With the Latter's Retirement.

The entrance of Major Warner into the lists as a candidate for delegate-at-large to the Republican National Convention has a thrown the St. Louis politicians luto a fright, from which they are not likely to recover soon. Warner is strong in the west-crn part of the State. The G. A. R., which usually turns out well at the State conventions, will likely be on hand at Kansis. City in large numbers. This strength is a Warner's, without the asking, and practically means his selection. With State Chairman Akins as another candidate sure tically means his selection. With State Chairman Akins as another candidate sure tically means have been conventionally as a control of the State. The G. A. R. which is the field against St. Louis, and the city is asking for four delegates.

The outlook is, indeed, squally, and the bosses are prepared to witness an overthrow of Kerens when it comes time for his re-election. With the combination of all the various elements in the State against him and the defection of the leading Republican organs, it looks as it Kerens might be left to held up his own tent-pole to keep the thing from collapsing upon him.

What his course will be is hard to determine, Davis's action in asking Kerens to meet him in New York on his arrival from South Africa, and the former's immediate withirawal from the position of Assistant Secretary of the Interior, throws a burden of explanation on the National Committeenan. His position is said to be growing so hot on account of adverse criticism that, to save his own chances of going to the Philadelphia convention as one of the "big four" delegates, it will be absolutely necessary for him to disclaim any action in the resignation matter.

AUDRAIN COUNTY REPUBLICANS. Delegates Selected for the Convention-Subject of Trusts Ignored.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Moberly, Mo., April 23.-The Republicans of Audrain County met here to-day to select delegates. The attendance was distressingly small, but the rows were many and hot. Five out of the eleven townships were represented by three Postmasters who held proxies. This precipitated a hot, long fight, but in the end the officeholders downed the rank and file of the party.

Following are the delegates: State Convention—John C. Herron, G. Ferris, G. G. Bragg, I. Weisberg, instructed for Flory, Judicial—T. B. Kimbrough, Charles F. Mayo. Congressional, Chillicothe—F. M. Winkler, T. J. Molinari, William O'Leary, W. J. Stamm, J. B. Cotty, T. S. Kelly, the Reverend W. F. Botts (negre), J. E. Lytle, I. C. Temple, Senatorial—E. C. Music, W. T. Wright, C. F. Jones, S. T. Kerens on the National Committee, and he held a conference with Collector Charles Smith at the Federal building yesterday, in which the subject was given much consideration. Mr. Kellogg has been a warm friend of Webster Davis, and it is said he permitted the latter to dictate all the appointments in his office at Kansas City. Since Mr. Davis retired from the President's official family it is thought Mr. Kellogg desires to get entirely into the Kerens band wagon.

Republicans in the Sixth District are after Mr. Kellogg's scalp with a vengeance that is brewing serious things. His enemies declare that he is not a sincere McKinley supporter, and, to prove it, they cite an incident which in Republican circles means rank heresy. They declare that previous to the time of the holding of the Republican National Convention Mr. Kellogg was not a McKinley supporter; that in his office at Rich Hill one of his clerks had placed a pleture of McKinley on the wall, and when Mr. Kellogg saw it he immediately pasted a likeness of Senator Allison over it. This is creating no end of trouble in the Western part of the State for Mr. Kellogg.

JOKE ON JUDGE SPENCER.

His Kansas City Friends Thought

Since Judge Selden Spencer returned from the Annual Conference of the Young Men's Christian Association at Kangas City, he ens as National Committeeman, and has said he would be glad to vote for him for that place again.

The defeat of the Republican ticket this spring, and the fact that Mayor Jones and Webster Davis have both retired from polities, leaves the local Republican party where a leader must be selected. Major Warner is politically ambitious and wants to get to the front again, and Mr. Washburn, being in office and a good campaigner, is fitted to take charge if his friends win, and the situation means a great deal to the fait or take charge if his friends win, and the situation means a great deal to the fait or take charge if his friends win, and the situation means a great deal to the fait or take charge if his friends win, and the situation means a great deal to the fait of take charge if his friends win, and the situation means a great deal to the fait of the club as an organization of the fitture. CHARLES W. FRANCIS'S PLUM.

Obtains Appointment of Assistant Health Commissioner.

Health Commissioner Starkloff yesterday appointed Charles W. Francis Assistant Health Commissioner. The appointment was approved by the Board of Health at a meeting held yesterday afternoon,

The office of Assistant Health Commissioner, which was recently created by the Municipal Assembly, pays a salary of $2,100 per annum. Mr. Francis, the appointee, was formerly Chief Sanitary Officer, at a salary of $1,800 per annum. He has been connected with the sanitary division of the Health Department and has made an enviable record as a thoroughly efficient and competent official. Under the provisions of the ordinance creating the new office the competent official. Under the provisions of the ordinance creating the new office, the Assistant Health Commissioner will perform the duties heretofore assigned to the Chief Santtary Officer.

The appointment of Francis created surprise among a number of politicians, as there were a half dozen applicants for the position, who had strong political backing. Quite a number of the "wise people" believed that Doctor G. A. Jordan, chief of the Dispensary staff, would secure the berth, as he was thought to stand very high with the Health Commissioner. It is said, however, that Doctor Jordan's political complexion was not aufficiently flawless to withstand the fierce lime-light which has been thrown upon it by his enemies within the last few months.

TAMMANY TIGERS COMING.

Dr. R. P. Johnston Predicts All Denominations Will Agree on One Statement of Belief.

TO BE FREE FROM PHILOSOPHY.

He Is Against Revision of Westminster Confession, but Advocates a New Creed for Presbyterian Church.

The Reverend Doctor R. P. Johnston, paster of Third Baptist Church, read a paper yesterday before the Baptist ministers' meeting on "The Place of Creeds," in which he took the position that a creed of some sort is essential to church unity and co-operation. Also, that creeds are important as indicating the history and development of theological thought and accuracy of statement of gospel truth.

"But," said he, "what is needed is a spirit strong enough to grasp the heritage of the past, and free and flexible enough to permit the legitimate expansion of Christlan consciousness and acquisition of new treasures."

Doctor Johnston closed his paper by advocating a creed universal, that should embody the essentials of Christianity, and which should be free from all philosophical speculation. He said: "My own opinion is that some day Protestantism will agree upon a general statement of belief, not descending into details and largely discarding philosophy, which will serve not as a stand-ard of authority, but as a bond of spiritual union and fellowship, which will allay denominational strife without affecting de nominational integrity and existence, and which will exhibit to the world a marvelous unanimity and present to the foe an undi-vided front."

The dector did not venture a suggestion as to how this ideal creed might be framed, but in an interview, after the meeting, he said that it would necessitate the calling of a general ecumenical conference, which might formulate the doctrines he held in common by all Protestant denominations. In the reading of the paper, no reference was made to the present discussion in the Presbyterian church, as to the revision of the Confession of Paith, but in an interview, he stated it as his opinion that a re-
